National GOP Chairman Hints President Will Run Again

THREE BOARDS ARE NAMED TO COUNT BALLOTS

Judge Thomas F. Lansberry, of Somerset, presiding specially in Adams County court this week for the recount of votes cast in 14 districts at the November election, this morning set up three boards to conduct the count, and then adjourned until 1 o'clock when the first three ballot boxes were opened.

Judge Lansberry explained that when a ballot box is opened, members of the board selected to make the count may not leave it until the recount is completed and the box resealed. For that reason it was decided to begin counting after the members of the three boards have had their lunch.

Five Democrats and four Republicans were selected by Judge Lansberry to make the count. They were selected from lists of recommended persons submitted by officials of the two parties.

Personnel Of Boards

Board One comprises: Luther Lady, Biglerville R. D., chairman, a Republican, Mrs. Emma Sheffer, Buford Ave., a Republican and former Adams County clerk of the courts and Ervin J. Baker, East Berlin R. 2, a Democrat. The board will meet in the law library.

Members of Board Two, which will meet in the jury room are: Mrs. Bessie M. Bringham, York St., past president of the County Democratic Women's Club, chairman, Edward D. Shelly, New Oxford, Democrat, and Robert M. Smith, Republican, office manager at the Adams Electric Cooperative here.

Board Three will meet in the courtroom, and includes: Mrs. Elsie I. Kimple, Gettysburg R. D., housewife, a Democrat; James U. Bowers, retired Littlestown mail carrier, also a Democrat and Herbert Raab, Gettysburg R. D., school teacher, Republican.

In Alphabetical Order
The first three boxes opened were Arendtsville, Berwick and Biglerville. As each board completes the district assigned to it, it will begin counting the next ballot box in alphabetical order.

Judge Lansberry explained that in each one of the boards one member will call off the votes cast and the other two will tally. If the two tallies do not agree at the end of the count "the board will put all of the ballots back in the box and start over again."

Specify Recount
If any one of the three members of each board has "the slightest question in his mind" concerning any of the ballots being counted, he is to ask that that ballot be placed to one side. Then the ballot will be taken before Judge Lansberry for a ruling on whether it can be counted. The boards will not make (Continued On Page 3)

Warning Issued By Tax Collector

Walter T. Mehring, Cumberland Twp. tax collector, is sending notices to 80 property owners and to 211 persons who still owe head tax to warn them that wage attachments and liens will be placed if the approximately $6,000 worth of tax still outstanding is not paid before January 1. Of that amount $36,797 was paid during July. Fifty-five per cent of the taxpayers paid during the period when they could secure a discount on the taxes.

Five Girls Kill Matron In Detention Home And Escape

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Five girls tricked a gray-haired matron into unlocking their door in the Summit County detention home last night, killed her and escaped through a basement window they smashed with a shovel.

Early today, two of the girls—Merl Cain and Margaret Nicholson, both 15—walked into the police station and surrendered. They said a boy friend persuaded them to give up. Still at large were Ruth Beichler, 17; Shirley Shingler, 15; and Mrs. Zelma De Cost, 16.

The body of the matron, 59-year-old Miss Bula Bonham, was found on the floor of the girls' second-floor dormitory in the somber, two-story brick building. Her arms and legs had been tightly bound with cloth belts from the print house dresses the girls wore. A washrag, soaked with ammonia the girls

Blaze Breaks Out In Attic Of Home

York Springs firemen were called at 6 o'clock Sunday evening to a fire in the attic of a house owned by S. G. Bigham, Biglerville, and tenanted by Ben Leedy.

Leedy and his family had moved into the house at Chestnut Hill, Aspers R. 1, just two hours before a passing motorist saw flames in the attic and, halting his car, rushed in to warn the family.

Paul Wolf, York Springs fire chief, said the family and others carried water in buckets to the attic and had the blaze almost under control by the time the firemen arrived.

Damage was estimated at $500. Chief Wolf said the fire started in wiring in the attic.

EIGHT INJURED IN FOUR MISHAPS OVER WEEKEND

Eight persons were injured and damage totaled $1,975 in four accidents investigated by state police from the local substation over the weekend.

Four were injured and damage totaled $900 when two cars collided head-on on the Emmitsburg Rd. two miles south of here at 11 o'clock Sunday evening.

Police said John R. Coach, 25, Plymouth, Pa. was admitted to the Warner Hospital with a laceration of the chin, contusions and abrasions, and sprained feet. Also admitted to the hospital, according to police, were Tolland Weant, 53, Gettysburg R. 1, with a fracture of the left leg and contusions and abrasions of the body and Goldie Carbaugh, 552 Baltimore St., suffering from possible fracture of the ribs. Treated at the hospital for a laceration of the forehead and various contusions and abrasions of the body and face was Mildred Irene Hollinger, 27, Gettysburg R. 1.

Crash Follows Crash
Police said the crash occurred when Coach was driving his convertible south, crossed the center of the highway and collided with a north-bound car driven by Mildred Hollinger. Coach was alone in his vehicle. The others injured were in the Hollinger car. All were removed to the hospital in the ambulance.

At 11:40 p.m. police said, when John Hefflin Jr., Gettysburg R. 5, operating a Swope's Atlantic Service Station tow truck, had started to tow the Coach car from the scene, Guy B. Weaver, 31, Gettysburg R. 5 farmer, headed north from Maryland, ran into the towed Coach convertible. Damage was estimated at $25 to Weaver's car. Weaver was lodged in the county jail by police on a charge of driving while under the influence brought before Judge (Continued On Page 9)

CLUB MEETS THURSDAY

The Adams County 4-H Baby Beef Club will meet Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Janet, Robert and Barbara Ann Hay, Gettysburg R. 3. It was announced today by Associate County Agent Fred H. Attinger.

A male attendant, Ralph Roebuck, 29, heard the scuffle overhead while he was supervising a group of 29 boy inmates watching television in a recreation room. He saw the five girls crawling out of the smashed window but did not chase them, fearing the boys would try to escape too.

The other girls in the dormitory said the five had been rehearsing the escape for some time and had threatened to kill them if they told anyone. The ammonia had been collected in a cold cream jar.

NINE MERCHANTS WIN PRIZES IN XMAS DISPLAY

Nine merchants won prizes totaling $150 in cash Saturday night in the third annual window display contest sponsored by The Gettysburg Times and Radio Station WGET. Thirty-seven merchants entered the contest.

Merchants winning prizes in the large window classification were: Pitzer's Men's Store, Chambersburg St., first prize; Rea and Derick Drug Store, Lincoln Square, second prize; and G. C. Murphy Company, Baltimore St., third prize.

Winners in the medium window classification were: Blocher's Jewelry Store, Chambersburg St., first prize; Tobey's, Baltimore St., second prize; and Coffman Jewelry Store, Chambersburg St., third prize.

Small window winners were: Wayside Flower Shop, S. Washington St., first prize; Chritaman's Jewelry Store, Chambersburg St., second prize; and Faber's, Lincoln Square, third prize.

Judges Award $150
Judges Nick Ruggieri, head of the Harrisburg Patriot-Evening News art department; Mrs. Donald Lenker, Harrisburg artist; and Richard Krick, supervisor of art in the Gettysburg elementary schools, awarded prizes of $25, $15 and $10 to the winners in each of the three classifications.

Window displays were judged on originality of setting, 50 per cent; arrangement of merchandise, 30 per cent; lighting, 15 per cent; and cleanliness, 5 per cent.

Several hours were spent by the judges studying the windows. "The arrangement, theme and presentation of all the windows were exceptional," commented the judges during their deliberation.

"It was difficult to select the winners," one judge said. "There were so many who ranked even in the various aspects of the judging that it required the combined decisions of all three judges to reach a final selection."

CLUBS' GROUP REJECTS UNIT CONTRIBUTIONS

The Gettysburg Association of Clubs, at a meeting Sunday morning at the VFW, voted against making donations to the Community Chest and the Warner Hospital building fund as a group because the member organizations are planning, in some instances, to give a direct donation. The VFW is unable, at the present, to make any donations, it was announced.

The Elks have already given to both drives, and the Eagles and Moose are considering individual donations, their representatives announced at the meeting.

The association was formed September 17, 1952, primarily to study and make recommendations on contributions asked the clubs by groups. One of its first activities was to raise $2,115.65 for a new sidewalk at the hospital at the request of the hospital board. For the past three years the principal activity of the association has been the sponsorship of the Halloween festivities locally. This year $1,300 was spent for the various events in connection with Halloween.

A redefinition of the purposes of the association will be asked, it was decided, at the dinner meeting January 18 at 6:30 p.m. at the VFW home, when new officers will be elected.

Christmas In England

This is the first of a series of articles to be published in The Gettysburg Times on Christmas observance in various countries.

In England, according to tradition, Christmas was first observed as a holiday in A.D. 321, when King Arthur celebrated his victory in retaking York. Many guests enjoyed a great feast at the famous Round Table. They were entertained by wandering minstrels, jugglers, harpists and pipe players.

During the ninth century, seven petty kingdoms in Britain were united under Alfred the Great who annually set aside 12 days for Practice makes perfect. So the nation's auto drivers were urged today to practice for the next two days to insure a "perfect" performance on S-D Day.

The second national observance of Safe Driving Day, sponsored by the President Committee for Traffic Safety, will be held Thursday in an attempt to prove that voluntary individual and community action can hold traffic deaths and injuries well below the normal toll.

In asking that the next two days be used as a practice period, safety leaders hoped that the S-D Day record this year would show an improvement over the 15 per cent reduction in deaths achieved on S-D Day last year.

One good way to practice, according to the experts, is to observe the driving errors of others for the next two days.

By watching the mistakes of other drivers, the rules of the road and the dangers in failing to follow them are brought home much more forcibly.

- Here are some potentially dangerous driver actions to watch for:
1. Excessive speed, especially at night, in bad weather, and in heavy traffic.
  2. Passing several cars at once, or on hills, curves and intersections where there is not a clear view ahead.
  3. Following too closely.
  4. Weaving and sudden lane changing.
  5. Sudden stops.
  6. Turning from wrong lane.
  7. Passing on the right, except on multi-lane highways where it is permitted.
  8. Speeding through traffic lights on the yellow.
  9. Jackrabbit starts at stop lights and other childish competition with other drivers.
  10. Failure to observe stop signs, especially making rolling stops at intersections.

Man Who Lived In Tibet Speaks Here Tuesday

Heinrich Harrer, the only European ever permitted to live within the walls of the Potala, the palace-fortress of the Dalai Lama in Lhasa, "forbidden city" of Tibet, says that "wherever I live, I shall always be homesick for Tibet."

Tibet has become home to the young Austrian mountaineer as the climax of an exciting adventure. The author of the best selling book, "Seven Years In Tibet," comes to Gettysburg College Tuesday at 8:30 p.m. to speak in Brua Hall. The public is invited.

An enthusiastic skier and mountaineer since his university days at Graz he was a member of the Austrian Olympic ski team in 1936 when he was twenty-three years old. He scaled for the first time the forbidding north face of Switzerland's treacherous Eiger two years later and, by this feat, earned a place in the German reconnaissance expedition to Nanga Parbat in Kashmir.

Interned By British
Before he could leave India that year, war broke out and Mr. Harrer was interned in a British prison camp. Twice he tried unsuccessfully to escape. The third time, with a fellow-internee, he made his way, disguised as a pilgrim, across the Tibetan border.

It took him twenty-one months to reach Lhasa, capital city of this remote, little known country where foreigners (Westerners in particular) have long been unwelcome. (Continued On Page 3)

Two Congressmen Among 4 Held By Reds Four Hours

BERLIN (AP)—Two American congressmen were held yesterday in the Russian sector of Berlin for more than four hours. The incident challenged some of the Allied occupation rights in this four-power city.

U.S. officials disclosed that East German Communist police detained Rep. Harold C. Ostertag (R-NY), Ostertag's wife, Rep. Edw. P. Boland (D-Mass.), and their escort officer, Lt. James T. McQueen, of Mullins, S.C.

Held At Pistol Point
The party was held at pistol point at the Russian War Memorial Center in Treptow. The German police contended the visitors had violated the laws of the Communist state by using an automobile equipped with a two-way radio.

U.S. authorities said that the Russians supported this claim later in the day when the Americans' release was secured. American officials took this to mean that the laws of the East German republic now could be applied to Allied personnel entering East Berlin. This

Tells Scribes He Is Pleased With Meeting This Morning

By ED CREAGH
The Associated Press

Republican Chairman Leonard W. Hall said today after a meeting with President Eisenhower that he now expects the President to seek a second term "if he feels he is able."

Hall met reporters after holding with the chief executive the first all-out political conference Eisenhower has had since his Sept. 24 heart attack.

The national chairman said Eisenhower's second term plans were not discussed "as a specific situation" at their 45-minute meeting but he declared he felt "very much encouraged" as a result of the meeting.

"I feel better about it (the President's running) after the meeting this morning," Hall said.

Made No Promises
Hall said he expected much to depend on late January's physical examinations which are supposed to show whether the chief executive's recovery from his heart attack is complete.

He said Eisenhower made no promises. "He didn't say yes and he didn't say no." But Hall offered as his "personal opinion" the comment: "I think he will (run) if he feels he's able."

And he said he feels more optimistic about the President's running than he did when they last met — in Denver, two weeks before Eisenhower was stricken.

Hall said the President demonstrated in their talk that he has kept in close touch with political affairs during his illness — that Eisenhower has a "continuing interest that goes beyond today or tomorrow."

Swats At Critics
Asked if he expected Eisenhower to announce his plans one way or another after the January medical checkup, Hall said that's entirely up to the President. And he said he doesn't attach much importance to the timing of such an announcement.

Hall said he touched on a number of current issues in his talk with Eisenhower—the farm and foreign situations, the 1956 conventions and campaign, the GOP's finances.

He didn't quote Eisenhower on these issues but took occasion to swat at such Democratic leaders as New York Gov. Averell Harriman who have been critical of administration foreign policy.

Fight Fire With Fire
Serving notice, in effect, that the Republicans are ready to fight fire with fire, Hall said the Republicans —be forced to compare the Democrats' record with their own. And there is no question, he declared, that the public will endorse the administration's course.

would in effect weaken, if not destroy, the four-power character of the divided, occupied city.

Maj. Gen. Charles L. Dasher Jr., U.S. commandant in Berlin, demanded an audience with the Soviet commandant, Maj. Gen. P. A. Dibrova, to lodge a verbal protest.

"Harrowing Experience"
Dasher indicated he would take up with Gen. Dibrova the rights of the Allies, especially in the use of official vehicles, as well as the "unjustified mistreatment" of the congressional party.

Ostertag told newsmen it was a "harrowing experience for me but I felt it would straighten itself out. It was difficult to understand the delay in getting the word down the line to any responsible authority. My wife was rather nervous, of course."

Rep. Boland left by plane this morning for Frankfurt and Naples. The party was touring in an Army sedan of the type used by the U.S. Mission accredited to the Soviet zone. The mission has never been involved in any incidents over the use of its two-way radio.

Tells Scribes

reporters asked if he expected the New York governor to be the Democratic presidential nominee next year.

"Well, he's running pretty well," Hall replied.

Harriman has said he would accept the nomination but will not campaign actively for it. At the same time he has been doing a good deal of speaking, statement-making and political conferring lately.

Hall appeared more buoyant after today's meeting than reporters have seen him in many a day.

Predicts '56 Victory

He laughingly denied a published report (Drew Pearson) that he ever threatened to commit suicide if Eisenhower failed to run again.

He predicted an even more sweeping victory for an Eisenhower-Nixon ticket next year than in 1952, adding he expected Vice President Nixon again would be Eisenhower's running mate if the President runs.

And he said he was able to tell Eisenhower the party's war chest is in fine shape—that recent contributions have put the treasury "in better shape today than in many, many months."

Asked if the meeting today meant Eisenhower was resuming active command of the party, Hall replied: "He never relinquished it."

Hall said he will report on today's session to the Republican National Committee meeting in Chicago later this week and also take to the Chicago gathering a personal message from Eisenhower. Arrangements are incomplete for making public this special message.

"No Other Candidate"

The National Chairman declined to talk about Republicans who might get the presidential nomination should Eisenhower bow out.

"So far as I am concerned there is no other candidate," he said.

Hall said Eisenhower showed interest "in what the Democrats are doing" in the way of criticizing the administration's program, but that he did not show "any particular reaction."

And he said the president indicated "awareness" of the farm problem bedeviling the Republicans in the mid-west especially.

Hall said every poll he's seen indicates Eisenhower is the 1956 choice of 78 to 80 per cent of the voters—a preference, he said, that indicates the Democrats couldn't even carry the nine states they carried in 1952.

He likewise predicted the GOP, with Eisenhower heading the ticket, would be stronger in the south than in 1952. Then, he said, the party got off from a standing start while "in 1956 we will have going concerns in every state."

A newsman recalled Eisenhower's saying in Denver that the Republicans mustn't pin their hopes on any one man, and asked if the President spoke in similar vein today.

Hall said no but "I expect if asked he would make the same reply." He said Eisenhower's emphasis always has been on team work rather than on any individual.

GOP hopes were growing that he would accept renomination. His stepped-up activities in recent days, his appearance of physical well-being and consistently favorable medical reports gave reason for the President's party to cross its fingers, at least.

On the other hand there was the virtual certainty that some Eisenhower intimates, above all Mrs. Eisenhower, have been telling him he's done enough for his party and country and the time has come to step aside for somebody without a heart attack in the background.

In New Orleans for a convention, Edgar Eisenhower disclaimed any knowledge of what his brother's decision might be. But he told the Times-Picayune these three factors would determine the President's second-term plans:

1. "What the doctors tell him."
2. "What Mamie (Mrs. Eisenhower) feels about it."
3. "What the foreign situation is."

BAG FIRST DEER

George H. Bream, Gettysburg R. 2, was reported to have killed a 6-point, 100 pound buck about 7:05 o'clock this morning in the mountains back of Bendersville. This was Bream's first deer in over 10 years of hunting.

Francis Dayhoff, Fairfield, shot a 136 pound, eight-point buck near Liberty Hall five minutes after the season opened this morning. The Times was informed.

John Hartzell, Cashtown, bagged a 6-point, 150-pound buck on Green Ridge back of Orrtanna this morning at 9 o'clock.

Paul Weizel, manager of the Mt. Carmel farm of the C. H. Musselman Co., killed a four point buck on that farm this morning at 11:30 o'clock. He was accompanied by his son, Wendell.

Jack "Mick" Sheaffer, New Oxford R. D. shot a buck this morning at 7:30 o'clock near Green Ridge.

"IT'S THE PEOPLE"

It's been said that life's a headache . . . joyful days are very few . . . and at times I'm prone to reason . . . what they say is, oh, so true . . . then again, somehow I wonder . . . if we all are not at fault . . . sprinkling the wounds of sorrow . . . with some very bitter salt . . . most of us promote much heartache . . . by the things we do and say . . . bringing to the folks around us . . . untold worry and dismay . . . yes, at one time or another . . . we have all been guilty of . . . spreading grief instead of gladness . . . placing hate before true love . . . there's no use in blaming heaven . . . for the troubles of this life . . . it's the people living in it . . . who instigate the strife.

MAN WHO LIVED

When Harter and his companion finally crossed into Tibet, they were threatened with explosion by every local potentate. They made friends with the few natives living at immense elevations in the almost trackless plateau, and learned the language. Except for their matted beards, they came in time to reemble the Tibetans. They had no weapons. They froze, they starved. Bandits pursued them, but the natives, with their hatred of violence, often protected them. Only trained mountaineers could have survived.

After twenty-one gruelling months, Heinrich Harter reached "the forbidden city." He stole into Lhasa, a bundle of rags, almost penniless, without papers or status. Thanks to the peculiar humor of the Tibetan upper classes, the nobility and officials were more amused than angered when the determined young Austrian was discovered in their midst.

The Roman Catholic Church in this place was entered on Sunday night, the 18th inst., and robbed of a cross from the tabernacle. The cross was silver plated and doubtless taken for solid silver.

The Postmaster General has appointed Miss Louisa Wolf postmaster at Abbotstown, in this county, vice Abraham Busbey, resigned.

A pumpkin measuring five feet in length was grown in the garden of Esquire Pittenbarger, in Heidlersburg, this season. "Sum punkin!"

Snow came down quite briskly here on Wednesday morning last, but it "threw" in no time.

Turnpike Election: On the 12th instant, the Stockholders of the "Gettysburg and Petersburg Turnpike Company" elected the following officers for the ensuing year: — President, Wm. McSherry; Managers, Jacob Wirt, J. B. McPherson, Wm. D. Himes, J. H. Dorsey, Dr. John A. Swope; Treasurer, John B. McPherson.

Messrs. Irvine and Taylor were engaged with a surveying corps, during several days of last week, between New Oxford and Hanover, making examinations for the best line — and then returned to their homes; intending, however, to be back again shortly.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Important School Decision: One of the evils connected with our school system is the frequent and often unwise change of textbooks. School Boards are importuned and button-holed by plausible agents of publishing houses, who can point out and exaggerate every defect in books in use in any given district, with equally plausible representations of the superiority of books proposed to be substituted. It requires a good deal of nerve and self-reliance to dispose of these persistent agents, and School Boards often make changes unadvisedly but with honest purpose. The law has thrown around this matter important guards — requiring changes to be made by the affirmative vote of at least four Directors, and this not often than once in three years.

Fairfield Items: Thanksgiving day was instituted by the Pilgrims at Plymouth as a day of fasting, thanksgiving, and prayer, in memory of the bountiful crops gathered at their first harvest, in 1621. Occasional days of thanksgiving were held from then until 1680, when it became an annual custom in Massachusetts, and they were frequent in other Colonies, often at different seasons and for various purposes — as for the safe arrival of ships after dangerous voyages, or for victory over the Indians. President Lincoln issued proclamations recommending days of special thanksgiving for victories in 1862-3, and in 1863-4 for the annual observance of the day by the nation; since which time the President has issued such a proclamation annually, supplemented by the Governors of many of the States. It is a day, too, which should become national in every sense, as no other nation, as a nation, has greater reason to be thankful to the Giver of all good, for liberty and progress, than ours.

On Saturday last, whilst Mr. B. J. Reed was in Gettysburg, he slipped and fell on the pavement, breaking his right arm above the wrist.

Today's Talk

KNOW WHAT YOU WANT
One reason why so many flounder and shilly-shally as to what they want most. So they just drift. No purpose. No plan. They merely exist. On the other hand, there are those who do know what they want — and go after it!

Never have there been so many opportunities. A life job awaits millions to make selections. Every new device calls for selling and distribution. This means jobs not created before. I read in my newspaper, recently, page after page of advertisements calling for engineers — a wonderful business in which to be — for newer and more useful machines, planes, and cars are a friend to come.

I have a friend who left his job in a small city to come to New York. He wanted to be a banker, so he took the first job offered, which was reporting bank news for a newspaper. Today he is one of the vice presidents of one of the most famous banks in New York City!

Know what you want and pursue it. Not only will you become self inspired, but that one big want will breed other and more useful wants, and you will be a wanted man! That's the way it works out. With a plan and a purpose, little by little you will become the father of wants, creating a desire for them in others.

It is by wants that we live, grow, and become mature. But you must know what you want or you will be plagued with wants that you can't satisfy. You see, wants are the heritage of us all, but we must tie to one great want and make it dominate our lives. Like being a fine writer, poet, musician, scientist, or public servant. Audubon knew what he wanted and so we have his magnificent paintings of birds. Charles M. Schwab knew what he wanted when he suggested to the elder Morgan that he become master of the newly organized United States Steel Company.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Learn by Doing!" Protected, 1955, By The George Matthews Adams Service

Just Folks
THE NEED OF THE TIMES
I wouldn't hinder progress by a deed or word of mine;
I believe in modern methods, but it's time to draw the line.
I glorify invention, and I hail creative men,
But we mustn't lose the splendor of our rugged history when
All hands turned out to labor in the good old-fashioned way.
And every man was eager to be worthy of his pay

Let progress bring her changes, and let's help her all we can,
But let's keep old-fashioned merit as the standard for a man!
We can throttle down injustice and remove the chains which irk,
But we must remain old-fashioned in our attitude towards work.
We must pursue the foolish doctrine, or regret it ere we're through,
That a man can find contentment with the least that he can do.

More money, yes, and comforts, those are things we all desire,
But the toiler must be willing to be worthy of his hire.
And no fables can be builded and no crops enrich the soil,
Despite all the modern thinkers, without good old-fashioned toil.
It's by work and constant effort that our wages we must earn,
For life cannot pay us dollars without something in return.

Christmas In England

holiday with everyone, from king to beggar, participating in the celebration. On Christmas, 1065, William the Conqueror met with his Great Council and decided to make a survey of England. The survey was later known as the Domesday Book. Henry 2nd was crowned on Christmas, 1154; and on the same day, 1214, the barons forced King John to sign the Magna Carta. During the Yule of 1346, Edward 3rd established the senior order of chivalry called the Garter.

In those days Christmas celebrations included tournaments, pageants, masques, dancing, tumbling acts, religious drama and hilarious horseplay.

"Heathen Practice"
During the reign of the Tudors, holiday productions reached their peak. Since Henry 8th loved buffoonery, he supplied expensive costumes for the actors and encouraged his subjects to go to theatrical entertainments.

His daughter, Queen Elizabeth, organized companies of actors and sponsored Christmas plays at Greenwich and Hampton Court. This is how the English stage got its start. Similar celebrations under the Stuart kings continued; but soon the effects of the Reformation were felt. It was believed that the celebrants of Christmas were going too far in their revelry. Under Oliver Cromwell, (1642) ministers preached strongly against Christmas observance as a "heathen practice." They said "Christ would not have approved of it, for it merely furnished excuse for wrong-doing."

Clergymen Arrested
Shops had to stay open on Christmas Day; there were no candles lighted nor cakes baked. A town crier walked through the streets of England shouting, "No Christmas! No Christmas!"

Some ministers and their congregations were arrested for holding service on Christmas Day. The Puritans went about their daily business; Parliament met as usual. With the restoration of the monarchy under Charles 2nd (1660), the old Yuletide customs came out from hiding. But they never again reached their former extravagance.

One British holiday tradition which came into existence in the 18th century (and which survives today) is the English pantomime. In December, 1717, Edmund Rich, who held the license for the theater at Lincoln's Inn Fields, put on "Harlequin Executed," the first English pantomime. During the next 45 years he continued to present these performances.

Ten-day Holiday
The English school children of today get a ten-day holiday and during this time they go to the pantomimes almost every day. They go with their mothers or nurses early in the afternoon, returning home in the dark (which falls early in the British winter season) to tea and games and bedtime. Two of the popular pantomimes are "Alice in Wonderland" and "Jack and the Beanstalk." The children often pay their way to the pantomimes with money given them by their uncles and aunts during the Christmas season.

Some of the loveliest English Yuletide traditions were revived under the famous Victorian author, Charles Dickens. He simply revealed in the lore of England and most of his countrymen joined him in reviving the ancient customs. His well known "Christmas Carol" not only influenced his native country but made a deep impression on English-speaking America. The characters of Scrooge, Tiny Tim and Bob Cratchit are as well-known as Santa Claus.

Special Cake Baked
At Epiphany in England a special cake was baked in ancient times to celebrate the coming of the three Wise Men on Twelfth Night, January 6. There was a play written for the occasion based on the custom of the king's giving gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh at this season. Horace Walpole wrote once to George Montague: "Monday, being Twelfth Day, His Majesty, according to annual custom offered myrrh, frankincense and a small bit of gold; and at midnight in commemoration of the Three Kings, or Wise Men, the King and Royal Family played at hazard, for the benefit of a prince of the blood." The present sovereign still carries out the ancient custom by proxy in the Royal Chapel of St. James.

"Father Christmas"
In England the children call Santa Claus "Father Christmas." They go into the department stores, as they do in America, and tell him what they want for Christmas.

They still "deck the halls and homes with holly," according to tradition. Well before the Christian era, evergreens were used as a symbol of eternal life. Years ago the people of the Celtic and Nordic lands worshiped the greens which do not die in winter. The Druid priests especially favored the sacred mistletoe. Through the years holly has been a popular decoration in English homes. The custom of using it in America was brought here by English settlers.

During the centuries mistletoe was regarded as almost sacred by Merrie England. It was always hung high because of an ancient belief that it should never touch the ground. Girls who were kissed under the mistletoe bough were supposed to wed within the year. This custom is still followed today.

Tree Popularity Wanes
The Christmas tree is not as popular in England today as in some countries. The children's toys are placed within a pillow slip and laid across the foot of their beds where the youngsters discover them in the morning. The adults' gifts are usually placed beside the breakfast plate.

Days before Christmas the children kneel on the floor in front of the fireplace to watch for Father Christmas. Several days before the great day a chimney sweep cleans out the chimney so that Father Christmas will make a clean entrance.

Give Mince Pies
The children go to bed early Christmas Eve after hanging their stockings at the foot of their beds. There is no wreath on the door but plenty of holly in the hall and around the pictures throughout the rooms. Often the children make fancy little lanterns to add a festive touch to the home.

The Christmas cake is baked a month before Christmas. It is filled with all kinds of fruits and nuts and take about six hours to bake. It is served at tea Christmas Day. As each guest leaves he is given a small mince pie to take home. Strangely enough, there is no meat in an English mince pie! And the English women do not bake cookies at Christmas as women do in other countries.

For hundreds of years "Eat, drink and be merry" was an old English tradition. During the years when Henry 6th was king (1422-1471), such dishes as roast heron, capon, venison, mutton, beef, boar and "custard royal with a leopard of gold sitting therein" were served. Spices and herbs were used freely in all the foods.

"Wayfarers' Pies"
Loud trumpets were used to announce the entrance of servants carrying great platters of beef, haunches of venison, roasted hares, turkeys, swans, herons, capons, pigs, geese and the boar's head. Bones were thrown to the dogs who hovered near the tables. The most beautiful lady present was given the honor of carrying in the peacock which was trimmed with its own colorful feathers.

Mince pies were called "wayfarers' pies" since they were given to all holiday guests. A story is told about a fabulous pie baked in 1770 for Sir Henry Grey by his housekeeper, Mrs. Dorothy Patterson, at Horwick, and sent to his home in London.

"The pie was about nine feet in diameter, weighed 165 pounds, and was served from a four-wheeled cart. In it was the minced meat of several partridges, pigeons, blackbirds, geese, rabbits, turkeys, and ducks — not to mention twenty pounds of butter, and a couple bushels of flour."

London Is Decorated
Today in England the people eat their Christmas dinner about three o'clock in the afternoon.

London is extravagantly decorated during the Yuletide season.

Plum pudding, often covered with brandy and lighted before serving to the guests, features the dinner. Small silver ornaments are hidden within the pudding to bring good luck to the finder. Afterwards everyone sings, plays the piano and dances. People usually stay up all night.

All next day, known as Boxing Day, December 26, the people of England carry boxes of food and clothing to the poor. Consideration for the poor has always been an important part of the English celebration of the Yuletide. At one time it was almost as important as Christmas Day, itself. Priests used to open the poor boxes in the churches and distribute the money to the needy.

Very few Christmas cards are sent in England. Instead, people exchange beautiful calendars as a holiday souvenir.

"Isle Of Bells"
Because of her many church bells, Britain has been called the "Isle of Bells." Long before Christmas, bells announce the approach of the coming of Christ. In many British homes, Advent wreaths, made of fir, holly or laurel, are hung from the ceiling with four candles, one for each Sunday in Advent, to warn of the birth of the Saviour. Parents and children stand under the wreath to sing traditional music.

Ever since the angels sang "Glory to God in the Highest," Christmas carols have been popular. One of the most popular in England is "God Rest You Merry, Gentlemen" which tells of the coming of Christ in a touching manner. Some versions of it go back to the 16th century. "Good King Wenceslas" was sung on St. Stephen's Day or Boxing Day, December 26. Carols were their best in England in the 16th century. Today in England the children go about the towns and countryside singing the cherished carols of Christendom. It is music, perhaps, sung in the same way through the years, in the churches, beneath the Advent wreath, beside the tree, in the school room and by the infant sleeping in the crib which keeps the Christmas traditions of England alive.

Will Introduce Sales Tax Bill

CORRY, Pa. (AP)—Rep. W. W. Waterhouse (R-Erie) said today he will introduce into the Legislature Wednesday a bill calling for a three per cent state sales tax.

While Waterhouse did not spell out the exact details of his tax plan he said it would exempt from the levy carry-home sales of food and clothing, but would not have exemptions so broad as those of the one per cent Pennsylvania sales tax which expired Aug. 31.

The Erie Republican said he and Sen. Mahany are convinced there will be "sufficient votes to pass the bill in both houses."

That would require some Democratic support in the House, where Democrats hold a majority. There are enough Republican state senators to provide a constitutional majority of 26 to pass the bill.

Gov. Leader has said in the past he would not approve a sales tax. Waterhouse did not speculate on the fate of his proposed bill should it pass the Legislature and then be vetoed by the governor.

Four Major Bowl Games Are Filled For New Year's Day; 'Gator Tussle' December 31

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

The bowl picture was four fifths complete today, chock full of veteran postseason performers, while the abstainers and the lesser lights of college football socked away their equipment until next season.

Only the Gator Bowl, among the five major attractions, is without a pairing. And the selectors are expected to make their move today, with Auburn and Tennessee leading the rumor list.

Except for the Rose and Orange bowls, whose programs are printed according to championship results in the Pacific Coast-Big Ten and Big Seven-Atlantic Coast conferences, the other bowl selections were completed after Saturday's games.

Here's the way they look:

Rose (Pasadena, Calif.)—UCLA (8-1) vs. Michigan State (8-1).
Orange (Miami, Fla.)—Oklahoma (10-0) vs. Maryland (10-0).
Cotton (Dallas)—Texas Christian (9-1) vs. Mississippi (9-1).
Sugar (New Orleans)—Georgia Tech (8-1) vs. Pitt (7-3).

All four are set for Jan. 2. The Gator Bowl is scheduled Dec. 31. Of the four completed bowls, six of the eight teams are among the top 10 in the Associated Press poll. The Orange Bowl has the cream of the crop, with first-ranked Oklahoma and third-ranked Maryland. With tomorrow's final poll, the Orange Bowl could very well claim the national champion in its build-up campaign. The Oklahoma Sooners, No. 1 for three weeks, were favored to top the final list, ending their regular season with 29 straight victories in a whopping 53-0 decision over Oklahoma A&M Saturday.

In the 1954 Orange Bowl, Maryland was the national champ, but Oklahoma came through with a 7-0 victory.

Rematch Of 1954
The Rose Bowl also stages a rematch of its 1954 attraction, when Michigan State defeated UCLA 28-20.

Georgia Tech, ranked No. 9 in last week's poll, accepted its fifth straight bowl bid after trouncing Georgia 21-3 Saturday.

Tech gained its fifth straight bowl victory last New Year's Day, beating Arkansas 14-6 in the Cotton Bowl.

Mississippi was the other bowl team picked Saturday, after its 26-0 triumph over Mississippi State which gave Ole Miss its second straight Southeastern Conference title. Last January, the Rebels went to the Sugar Bowl and lost to Navy 21-0.

Mississippi and UCLA are the only two current selections never to have won in a major bowl. Both are 0-for-3.

Maryland was a 3-1 major bowl record, Oklahoma is 4-2, TCU 3-3, Michigan State 1 and Pitt 1-3.

Auburn Awaits Call
Auburn didn't get a call after Saturday's 26-0 triumph over Alabama, although the Plainsmen are 8-1 in the season and No. 10 in the AP poll. The Gator Bowl picked Auburn the last two years and the Plainsmen split the pair, winning last January 33-13 over Baylor.

Tennessee (6-3-1), which probably eliminated Vanderbilt Saturday 20-14, has a 2-6 bowl record. Vandy never has made a bowl appearance.

The two main bowl abstainers, Army and Notre Dame, ended the season with opposite results Saturday. The Cadets came from behind and upset Navy 14-6, bopping the Middles out of the Cotton Bowl. Notre Dame, fifth-ranked, was upset by Southern California 42-20 in the wildest scoring binge Southern Cal ever has enjoyed in the series.

Texas Christian, which filled half the Cotton Bowl pairing a week ago, wrapped up its regular season by whacking Southern Methodist 20-13 to win the Southwest Conference championship.

CAGE CLINIC HERE TUESDAY

A basketball clinic, to which the public is invited, will be held in the Gettysburg College gymnasium Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

"Chuck" Taylor, who is credited with bringing the one-handed pass and shot to basketball, will conduct the clinic. Now a representative for the Converse Rubber Co., Taylor has conducted clinics throughout the country for more than 25 years.

He will demonstrate the art of ball-handling, shooting, passing and dribbling and will also show films of last year's championship collegiate games.

A special invitation to attend has been issued to all area coaches and their players.

REDS IMPROVE IN ICE LEAGUE

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Providence Reds are getting better as the season gets older for today they hold a six-point lead over their nearest rivals and threaten a runaway in the American Hockey League after uncorking their strongest attack of the campaign.

With rookie Jim Bartlett scoring three goals and Ken (Buck) Davis, filling in for the injured Camille Henry, adding two more, the Reds whipped the Cleveland Barons 9-2 last night.

In the only other game played, the third place Buffalo Bisons tallied once in each period for a 3-1 triumph over the last place Hershey Bears. Larry Wilson came through in the first period, Ken Wharmann in the second and Pete Comacher in the final minutes of the game after the Hershey goalie had been removed from the nets.

SNOW PROMISED AS BUCK SEASON OPENS IN STATE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Encouraged by a prediction of snow, Pennsylvania hunters headed into the woods today for the opening of the 12-day buck deer season.

The snow, which hunters consider a boon in the tracking of animals, was to be accompanied, however, by cloudy, windy and much colder temperatures, the Weather Bureau said.

The state Game Commission expected about 500,000 hunters in the field for the opening of the second and most important deer season. Shooting started at 7 a. m.

Bow and arrow deer hunters had a season Oct. 10-22.

Report Roads Crowded
Hunting must end at 5 p. m. each day until the end of the season on Dec. 10. Hunting is legal, except Sunday, in all counties of the state except Philadelphia.

A heavy influx of hunters into the big game woods was reported in northwestern Pennsylvania yesterday. All main roads leading to game near Warren and Forest counties were crowded.

In Potter County, a two-car head-on collision on Rt. 6 claimed the life of one hunter and injured three others, one seriously.

Hunter Killed
Killed last night about seven miles east of Coudersport was Harold J. Walther, 49, of Willow Grove near Philadelphia. Admitted to Potter County Memorial Hospital in serious condition was his cousin, Rudolph Walther, 48, also of Willow Grove. George Dillworth, 44, and Elmer White, 45, both of near Philadelphia, suffered only minor injuries in the crash.

Field reports indicated before the season began that the deer herd was a half a million light, the commission said.

Name Regulations
During the current season, only antlered deer with two or more points to one antler or a buck with an antler three inches long or longer is legal game.

The state's third deer season will be held Dec. 12 and 13 for persons holding special antlerless deer permits.

Other major regulations of the present season are:

Automatic or semiautomatic weapons are prohibited.

Deer must be tagged immediately after shooting and shotguns are legal if rifled slugs or pumpkin balls are used.

Plant To Expand Steel Production

CONSHOHOCKEN, Pa. (AP)—The Alan Wood Steel Co. will spend 14 million dollars the next two years aimed at expanding its steel producing capacity by 19 per cent.

President Harleston R. Wood, who made the weekend statement, said a program authorized by the board of directors included a new open hearth furnace with an improved cooling water supply system, new cold rolled annealing facilities and a new cold rolled temper mill.

The announcement said the improvements would increase the steel firm's production to 800,000 ingot tons a year.

SENATORS AND BUCS GET FIRST CALL ON STARS

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Washington had first pick of 3,184 eligible minor league baseball players today in the annual major league draft. All eyes were on the loaded farm rosters of the Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Yankees at Montreal and Denver, respectively.

The Senators earned the right by finishing last in the American League. As a "prize" for finishing eighth in the National, the Pittsburgh Pirates had second choice.

Although the pool included 14 batting champions, 6 home run kings and 27 "bonus" players who once commanded a fancy bonus checks, only a few were thought worth a gamble of from $2,000 to $15,000.

Everybody was looking for pitching strength and the clubs with an early pick spent long hours last night going over the list.

Seek First Baseman
In addition to the common want—pitching—Washington needed a first baseman to take up the slack left by the trading of Mickey Vernon to Boston and some outfield hitting power to take advantage of the new shortened fences at Griffith Stadium.

On the Dodgers' farm roster at Montreal in the International League was concentrated much of the prize young talent. Rocky Nelson, a first baseman with several big league trials, looked like prize bait. Rocky led the league with a .364 average, 37 homers and 129 runs batted in. Jimmy Williams, an outfield teammate, was runner-up at .330.

At the Denver farm of the American Assn. the Yanks had tucked away catcher Darrell Johnson, .306; infielder Herb Plews, .306; and outfielder Zeke Bella, Eastern League batting leader at Binghamton, N.Y.

STEELERS PICK UNKNOWN QB AS FIRST CHOICE

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Pittsburgh Steelers won the National Football League bonus choice today and surprisingly picked Quarterback Gary Glick, a comparative unknown from Colorado A&M College.

Dan Rooney, 23-year-old son of Pittsburgh owner Art Rooney, made the lucky draw for his father's team. The Steelers were the first of three teams competing in this year's bonus selection to make the out of the hat selection. The Green Bay Packers and the Chicago Cardinals were the other participants in the annual bonus affair.

Rooney, personnel director for the Steelers, was selected for the "drawing" job by Steeler Coach Walt Kiesling. The bonus picking opened the NFL's early draft session, called to enable the American pros to compete with Canadian League teams for the top collegiate grid talent.

Choice Big Surprise
When Commissioner Bert Bell announced the selection of the 23-year-old Glick, the stir of surprise in the draft room was quite audible. It had been expected that Pittsburgh, badly in need of a first line quarterback, would grab Michigan State's Earl Morrall, or possibly Ohio State's great running back Howard "Hopalong" Cassady.

Glick, a native of La Porte, Colo., just outside Fort Collins, played four years of Navy football before selecting Colorado A & M as his alma mater. The 6-1, 192-pounder started out as a fullback. This year, however, he was switched to quarterback when Coach Bob Davis found himself in need of a single caller.

Kiesling admitted that Glick was not selected for his passing ability but rather for his all-round strength, especially on defense. Glick was first in the nation last year in pass interceptions and ranked fifth in total offense in 1954 with 1,269 yards. He was only 16th in the nation in passing last year.

Kiesling explained he passed up Morrall and Cassady because he was satisfied with his offensive quarterback, Jimmy Flinks. He added also that he expected big John Latner of Notre Dame and John Cameron, another hard running halfback to be out of the service line in time for the 1956 season.

Borrow a few pipe cleaners from your husband's supply and keep them near your dishwashing area. They're efficient as can be for cleaning the spouts of both coffee pots and tea pots, and for the narrow tube of a percolator.

GRACE KENNEY RE-ELECTED BY HOCKEY GROUP

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa. (AP)—The United States women's field hockey team today is champion of the National Field Hockey Assn. Tournament.

The U. S. team, with 9 of 11 players from Philadelphia, trimmed the All-Star Reserve team 6-1 yesterday to capture the title. Betty Shellenberger and Anne Voip, two Philadelphians, led the All-Star's with two goals apiece. Helen Callan scored the only goal for the losers.

The playoff teams were chosen Saturday night after three days of preliminary play by 18 teams from almost every section of the country.

The five Philadelphia teams dominated play during the tournament and in addition to the nine first teams players landed five positions on the reserve team.

Among officers of the association re-elected was Grace Kenney, Gettysburg, Pa., treasurer. Arlene VanArtsdalen, a member of the Gettysburg College squad, played right halfback on the second Mid-East team during the tournament.

Babe Zaharias To Get Cancer Tests

GALVESTON, Tex., Nov. 28 (AP)—Babe Zaharias, famed woman athlete, was to start undergoing a week-long series of tests today to determine how she is doing in her fight with cancer.

The Babe, who has undergone two previous cancer operations, entered John Sealy Hospital yesterday. Mrs. Zaharias said increasing pain in her right hip led her to have some X-rays taken at Tampa, Fla., where she's been recuperating after her latest operation two months ago. She said she returned to Sealy on the advice of her Tampa physician.

Physicians here said Mrs. Zaharias may have been "overdoing it" in her golf practice. They said they were hopeful "the cancer has not spread from the previously designated region" in the lower part of her back.

PITT POWER AT STAKE AGAINST GEORGIA TECH

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Pittsburgh's meeting with Georgia Tech in the Sugar Bowl Jan. 2 may show whether the Panthers, once the scourge of collegiate football, are on the prowl again.

The 1955 Pitt team hung up the university's best record since 1938 in winning seven games and losing three. The 1938 squad, last of a string of great Pitt teams, won eight and lost two.

That was the late Jock Sutherland's last great squad. From 1931 to 1938, the Panthers won 64 games while losing only 9 and tying 5. The 1937 team was named national champion. And the 1936 team went to the Rose Bowl and clinched a great season with a 21-0 victory over the Washington Huskies.

Pick Up In 1952
By contrast, from 1939 to the start of the 1955 season, Pitt won only 60 games against 84 defeats.

Pitt fortunes began to perk up in 1952 with a creditable six victories and three losses.

Pitt's record dipped to only three triumphs in nine outings in 1953. And in 1954, the Panthers won four of nine, but illness to Coach Red Dawson may have hurt Panther spirits.

Johnny Michelosen, hero of the great Pitt teams of the late '30s, succeeded Dawson at the beginning of this season and took a crash step in assuming command. He junked the traditional power-based Pitt single wing, mainstay of the Panther offense under Sutherland and Dawson, and installed the faster and more deceptive split-T. The results bore out Michelosen's choice.

BLAIK SHIFTS GAVE ARMY BIG WIN OVER NAVY

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP)—Army's upset victory over Navy, culminating another masterful job of personnel changes, today elevated Coach Earl Blaik and his Cadets to new heights in football achievement.

Saturday's 14-6 triumph over the Midshipmen at Philadelphia recalled the 1953 season, when an Army team with a remade lineup beat Navy 20-7.

The biggest change for Army this year was the shifting of Don Hollender, a great end in '54, to quarterback. He exploited a weakness on the right side of the Navy line, bringing the Cadets from behind after Navy had scored early in the first period.

Other Shifts
Blaik also moved Play Goodwin from guard to tackle and back to guard, Dick Stephenson from center to tackle and All America Ralph Chesnauskas from guard to tackle to end. And Pat Uebel, who scored three touchdowns against Navy in '53 and one each in the past two games, played both of the halfback spots and fullback at one time or the other.

Adjustments were made necessary because of the lack of depth since the cribbing incident which all but wiped out the Cadet squad last before the 1951 campaign.

Does Blaik feel there's more satisfaction in a winning team than such severe and testing adjustments are required?

"I think the boys get more out of it," he said, "in the sense that there are a lot of sacrifices made. It's an uphill battle and it's the uphill battles that always bring out the best in men."

PREPARE ANSWER TO STOTZ; NEW 'LITTLE LEAGUE'

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—Attorneys for Little League Baseball, Inc., today prepared their legal answer to a $300,000 breach of contract suit filed by the organization's deposed commissioner, Carl E. Stotz.

Peter J. McGovern, president of the organization, said a reply to the suit would be filed in Lycoming County Court by the corporation's attorneys "within a few days."

McGovern made the comment last night after Stotz filed his $300,000 suit and opened headquarters for a new organization under the name of "Original Little League."

Stotz said he planned to offer franchises to 3,977 Little Leagues across the country and has been receiving offers of support from many clubs.

McGovern, however, said no specific action was planned by Little League Baseball, Inc., against Stotz opening a separate office. He added that attorneys will undoubtedly look into the question of an employee opening another headquarters.

8 SCHOOLBOY ELEVENS HAVE PERFECT MARKS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Eight major schoolboy football teams recorded perfect records during the three-month 1955 campaign that ended over the weekend.

The total is more than the number of teams to finish the 1954 season without a defeat or tie. Two schools, Lower Merion and Mahanoy Twp., are on both lists.

Half of the 1955 all-winning teams are in western Pennsylvania. In addition to Lower Merion and Mahanoy Twp., eastern Pennsylvania has one other entry and central Pennsylvania has one.

The all-winning teams:
Clearfield (10-0), Huntingdon (10-0), Minersville (10-0), Warren (10-0), Alliquippa (9-0), Carlisle (9-0), Lower Merion (9-0), and Mahanoy Twp. (8-0).

Lower Merion extended the state's longest major winning streak to 23 on Thanksgiving Day by thumping Radnor, 27-6.

Three other previously unbeaten elevens weren't as lucky. Easton and Williamsport lost by 7-6 scores to Phillipsburg, N. J., and Steelton, while Wilkes-Barre Meyers lost its traditional clash to Wilkes-Barre GAR 6-2.

Steelton's win over Williamsport gave them a tie with the Millionaires for the Central Penn. Conference title.

Alliquippa finished the season Saturday by winning the championship of the WPAL AA 14-13 in a playoff game against Mount Lebanon. In the Eastern Conference, West Scranton and Coal Twp. were crowned champions of the Northern and Southern Divisions. They will meet Saturday at Shamokin in the post-season playoff game.

Conference Winners
The major conference winners showing first their conference record, the season record and the 1954 titlist:

WPAL AA—Alliquippa (6-0), (9-0), Clairton.
Eastern Conference, Southern Division—Coal Twp. (6-0), (9-1), Mount Carmel.

Northern Division—West Scranton (7-0), (7-2), West Scranton.
Central Penn.—Williamsport and Steelton, (6-1), (9-1), (8-1), Williamsport.

South Penn.—Carlisle (6-0), (9-0), Carlisle and Mechanicsburg.
Section II—Warren (5-0), (10-0), Meadville.

Western Conference—Clearfield and Huntingdon (9-0), (10-0), (10-0), Conemaugh Twp.

Alliquippa won the WPAL double A playoff on the accurate place kicking of Willie Smith. His two extra points spelled the difference and gave the Quips their second class AA championship in four years. They beat Washington 13-12 to win in 1952.

In the Eastern Conference, the final ratings gave West Scranton a 103 point edge over second-place Wilkes-Barre GAR and Coal Twp. a 17 point margin over Minersville.

For West Scranton it was the second year in a row and only the second time in history that the team won the division title. Last year the Invaders were beaten by Mount Carmel for the conference championship.

Exactly half the 12 teams in the National Football League still have a chance for a title with only two weeks to go, and it's no wonder when you consider the goings-on in the pro football set.

Ever hear of a team favored by 16½ points getting whipped 53-14? How about a player kicking three field goals in the last quarter, the last one to win the game with 7 seconds to play? And when was the last time a pro kicking specialist saw two of his efforts blocked in one game, the second with the score tied and 25 seconds remaining?

All these things happened in the NFL yesterday, and they left both conference races snarled like grandma's ball of yarn when the kitten got through playing with it.

White House Conference On Education Opens; Politics, Federal Aid Are Explosive

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—The men and women taking part in the President's White House Conference on Education opening today would like to think it will do good. Will it? Or will it be just a lot of people letting off steam?

The delegates include educators, labor, farm and civic leaders, businessmen and clergymen. They may, in spite of their varied views on how to get more schools and teachers, reach some majority opinions without explosions. But they still seem to face a triple problem of time, politics and money.

This conference has had a build-up for almost two years, a lot of fanfare, and countrywide interest. President Eisenhower proposed it in a message to Congress Jan. 7, 1954.

Held State Conferences
Then he created a committee of 34 men and women to advise him on what the government should do about the country's educational needs.

Since then, and at the committee's suggestion, all the states and territories have had their own conferences to discuss what they thought needed to be done.

Reports on all those states' conferences were supposed to be sent to the committee. Not all of them have arrived yet. Only about five states took the trouble to print and bind their reports.

To Discuss Federal Aid
This writer saw them and the unbound reports in the committee's files. Some of those unbound ones appear so disorganized that — if they are a true reflection of what happened at the state conference — those conferences must have been chaos.

There is disagreement among the states, and within the individual state conferences, on whether the states should have federal aid. That question—federal aid to education—will probably be the most explosive at this conference.

Meanwhile, state officials—governors and educators—appointed delegates to this convention. They didn't necessarily have to be the same people who took part in their states' conferences, and some of them apparently don't have to be guided by what their state conferences agreed on.

Report To President
When this conference finishes up Thursday, its reports on recommendations will be turned over to the President's committee. That committee doesn't have to be bound by the action of this conference.

This is where the time element enters. The 34-member committee which Eisenhower created to advise him doesn't meet to decide on recommendations until Jan. 16.

But probably before then—perhaps in the first 10 days of January — Eisenhower will send his State of the Union message to Congress, a natural vehicle for any recommendations he wants to make on education.

He To Make Recommendations
He could hardly make any specific recommendations unless he had been informed long before the committee's Jan. 16 meeting what its recommendations were likely to be.

But if he makes specific recommendations before he gets the committee's report, then a question arises: Why the committee at all and why the conferences?

He could speak in general terms about education and later, after getting the committee's recommendations, send a special message to Congress on education.

Aid Vs. Economy
But apparently no matter what this conference or Eisenhower's

1,400 GATHER FOR CONFERENCE ON EDUCATION

By HERMAN R. ALLEN
WASHINGTON (AP)—American mothers, fathers, teachers, businessmen — a 1,400-member cross section of the population—gathered today for the four-day White House Conference on Education.

Many were loaded with questions on one of the most controversial issues in the educational world today—federal aid to schools, due for discussion Wednesday.

Delegates to 18 of the state conferences preliminary to the national conference took a stand on the question. At several other state meetings it was discussed without recommendation.

Of the 18 conferences, a dozen approved federal aid, but almost every one of these tackled it from a different direction. Some declared for federal aid of any kind, some only for construction assistance, some for federal funds "without strings."

Some approved it in principle "for other states if they need it." Legislation now before Congress calls only for federal aid for school construction, not for operation, teachers' salaries or purchase of books.

The conference was called by President Eisenhower nearly a year ago to dig out "the information with which to attack these serious problems" in education. It will take up six main points: school aims, organization, building needs, faculty needs, financing, and public interest in education.

Tonight's opening session will include sound-filmed greetings from President Eisenhower and speeches by Vice President Nixon; Conference Chairman Neil McElroy, president of the Procter & Gamble Co.; and Clint Pace, conference director.

committee recommends on federal aid to education, that subject will be up to its neck in politics anyway.

The Democrats run Congress. Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas, Democratic leader in the Senate, said a week ago his party would push for federal aid to education. If Eisenhower asks for federal aid, plus other things, he'll be dealing with Democrats in an election year. They'll have ideas of their own, no doubt.

But any proposal on federal aid will run smack into the Eisenhower administration's economy drive. The Republicans want to cut expenses and balance the budget in 1956, an election year.

Floridians Tap Out Morse Messages

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP)—The tax assessor communicates with the tax collector in Pinellas County's very modern courthouse by tapping out Morse code with old style telegraph keys.

Assessor H. H. Sterling and Collector Lester Lambert both were railroad telegraphers in their younger days.

In odd moments they worked out a two key system, complete with oldtime wet plate batteries.

Now there is no worry about telephone dialing, busy lines, or walking the length of the courthouse for a conference or an invitation to a cup of coffee. Just a few raps on the key and all is set.

CLUB TO HOLD "WIVES NIGHT"

Plans were made for a "Wives Night" program to be held Dec. 21 at the Pines Church, near New Chester, at a recent meeting of the Hunterstown Area Ruritan Club in the social room of the Great Conewago Presbyterian Church. A television set will be given away.

The club will decorate a Christmas tree, play instrumental music, sing carols and give treats to children in Hunterstown. The date will be announced later. A suggestion that the club enter a float in the annual Biglerville Christmas parade was referred to the finance and entertainment committees.

The Youth Committee reported that it is working on the Boy Scout project and is seeking a Scoutmaster.

Following the dinner meeting the Hunterstown orchestra, under the direction of Clair Ford, entertained with several selections. William Lentz, a manager of the Metropolitan Edison Company, showed a film on better wiring practices and described the services available from his company.

IDENTIFIES SKELETON
FRACKVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Mrs. John Savekis of Brooklyn, N. Y., has identified parts of a human skeleton as the remains of her 62-year-old husband of Frackville. Mrs. Savekis, who formerly lived in Frackville, made the identification from a mine worker's belt her husband had worn. Dr. O. H. Mengle, Schuylkill County deputy coroner, said he saw no reason to believe the death was not from natural causes. The parts of the skeleton were found on Broad Mountain. Savekis had been missing since 1951.

BOY, 9, FIRES XMAS GIFT GUN, KILLS COUSIN, 6

YORK, Pa. (AP)—John Gordon Kline, 6, of nearby Dover R. 4, was the victim of a bullet from a .22 calibre rifle held by his 9-year-old cousin, state police said.

Cpl. Richard P. Sneider of the York state police barracks said yesterday by a bullet fired from an early Christmas gift held by Barry Lee Marshall, first cousin of the victim.

Sneider said Barry thought the rifle was empty when he aimed it at John to "scare him."

York County Coroner Lester J. Sell declared he would issue a certificate of death following an autopsy of young Kline's body.

Youth Is Held
Barry was turned over to juvenile probation authorities and placed in the York County Detention Home pending the completion of the state police and coroner's investigation. Sneider reported that John, a sister, Barbara Ann, 8, and a brother, Charles Jr., 4, were outside the Marshall home when Barry went to get the rifle to show his cousins. Young Kline, the trooper said, walked to the house and looked through a locked storm door. Barry was inside the house at the time and raised what he thought was an empty rifle and fired to "scare him (John)," Sneider said.

The rifle had been given Barry by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Marshall, as an early Christmas gift.

Barry was quoted by Sneider as saying he had placed a shell in the rifle Saturday night but had forgotten it was there.

Having a deer in possession without a locked tag in Arizona constitutes unlawful possession. The minimum fine is $100.

Widower Belives In Help For Help's Sake

SPANISH FORK, Utah (AP)—Roger Beck, 85-year-old widower, has a hobby which he describes this way: "I help old people."

Beck, whose invalid wife died earlier this year, does such things as chopping kindling and preparing meals for widows, widowers and elderly people whose health isn't as good as his own.

Beck doesn't quote scriptures or philosophy in talking about his hobby. He says he just does it "because they need a little helping out."

22 Operations Pay Off After 37 Years

SUNSET, Utah (AP)—After 37 years and 22 operations, Joseph L. Wells knows what his wife and children look like.

And, he adds, "I never realized before that fire hydrants are red." Wells was born with a cleft palate and harelip, and a visual defect which grew worse as he grew older. It threatened to result in total blindness.

But today he has normal vision, with the aid of mild corrective lenses. His eyesight was restored by two corneal transplant operations. The first was performed at Stanford Hospital at Palo Alto, Calif., three years ago. The second was done last April.

In addition to the eye operations, he has had 20 operations to correct the defects in his mouth and nose. Some of them were the result of assistance from the Vocational Rehabilitation Division of the Utah State Department of Public Instruction.

Before getting his present job at the Naval Supply Depot, Wells had to work at manual labor, although he held a degree from Brigham Young University. Now he is looking forward to a job more in line with his university training.

The Times
Gettysburg, Penna.
Dear Sir:

I know your townfolk meant no disrespect to the Nation's first citizen now among your midst, the President, but were not some of them a bit thoughtless in draping the Flag of the United States of America upon the railing of the platform upon which he stood, as shown in the accompanying illustration taken from the current issue of the U. S. News and World Report?

According to Public Law 829 the Flag should never be displayed below the heads of persons sitting. The correct placing of that particular Flag should have been on a staff, and at the right of President and Mrs. Eisenhower.

Respectfully yours,

MAN CONFESSES TO 30 FIRES IN TWO COUNTIES

MEDIA, Pa. (AP)—Volunteer fireman Edward Bogardus, 24, led police and fire officials on a three-hour tour yesterday of burned Delaware and Chester County buildings to which authorities said he admitted setting fire.

Earle H. Allen, Delaware County chief of detectives, said Bogardus admitted in a written statement that he set more than 30 fires. They caused damages estimated at approximately half a million dollars.

The tour was made of several burned barns, two schools, a food market and a partially built $75,000 home that burned Saturday night.

Bogardus, a truck driver and a member of the Swarthmore volunteer fire company, was arrested at the firehouse when he reported on duty for the Saturday night fire. Police said he was seen in the area of the fire earlier.

After the tour, Bogardus was arraigned on charges of arson and held without bail for a further hearing.

Taylor said Bogardus gave this reply when asked why he started the fires: "I just get the urge."

Wonderful New Ride with a "Sense of Direction"

Over the years, Buick has always had a great ride. But each year, Buick engineers find new ways to better it. And in the 1956 Buick comes a ride beyond anything that has gone before—the sweetest ride in Buick history.

We could tell you the why of it...

About a brilliantly engineered new chassis of extra brawn and heft and precision balance...

About new direct-action, deep-oil shock absorbers that snub jars and jolts with full, firm authority—and add new levelness to the car's all-coil springing...

About new V-bracing and new housing rigidity that bulkwark the full-length torque-tube drive—bringing new swerve-free steadiness...

Even about a whole new magic of angles and linkage in the front-end geometry to gift you with a new surety of control and impart a track-true "sense of direction" to the front wheels.

But that's just a telling of it. Only in the driver's seat can you get the feel of it. Only there, too, can you sense the mighty sweep of Buick's great new 322-cubic-inch V8 engine, now stepped up to an all-time high in power and compression.

And only there can you really know the thrilling double-action take-off of today's new Variable Pitch Dynaflo*—the spirited action that gives you instant getaway response at merely part throttle, plus utter smoothness through every inch of travel.

Come in for a visit, this week—just to sample at first-hand the sizzle and thrill and ride sweetness in the best Buick yet.

JURY ACQUITS BLONDE WIDOW IN PAY DEATH

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—A jury acquitted a 47-year-old blonde widow yesterday of paying a gunman to kill her wealthy oilman husband.

Mrs. Mary Clark placed her gloved hands over her face, wailed and fell onto the shoulder of her attorney Elvin Tackett after the verdict. Two friends helped her from the courtroom.

The jury deliberated about two hours Saturday night and several hours yesterday.

William P. Clark was found shot to death May 23, 1953, in his 22-room mansion.

The state, which asked a life sentence for Mrs. Clark, built its case around statements of an ex-convict, Harry Huggins, who is under a murder indictment in the slaying.

"Pay For The Job"

Huggins told this story at the trial:

He and two other ex-convicts who later died in gangland slayings—Tiney Eggleston and Cecil Green—went to the Clark home for what he thought was to be a robbery. Eggleston shot Clark, and told Huggins that Mrs. Clark had offered to pay for the job. Later, Huggins saw Eggleston collect $6,000 from a man and a woman whom he tentatively identified as Mrs. Clark.

Mrs. Clark's attorney, Tackett, testified that Huggins told him last spring that Mrs. Clark had nothing to do with the slaying. Another defense witness testified she was attending a funeral at the time of the alleged payoff.

The state sought to prove she engineered her estranged husband's death to get his large estate.

Clark cut his widow off with $10 in his will, leaving the bulk of his estate to charity. Nearly all of it is rich oil and gas holdings in New Mexico.

Next year's Ivy League football champions will get a trophy from the 1925 class at Pennsylvania.

Kentucky Honors Safe-Driving Cities

ASHLAND, Ky. (AP)—Mayors of cities with more than 35,000 population which beat Ashland's record on safe driving day Thursday will get Kentucky colonel commissions.

If Ashland, the "target city" in the eastern half of the nation, has no accidents, mayors of all cities in the population class which likewise have perfect days will get the commissions.

Mayor David Aronberg, in challenging the eastern cities, said Gov. Lawrence Wetherby has agreed to issue the commissions.

SHERIFF, AIDE ARE KIDNAPT

JACKSON, Calif. (AP)—Three men kidnaped the sheriff of Calaveras County and his deputy last night after whipping out hidden guns while being questioned at a jail.

Sheriff Lester McFall was put out of his stolen car at Slough House, 20 miles from here, apparently because the gunmen did not want to hurt him. He is almost 60. The deputy, Russell Leach, overpowered one kidnaper shortly afterwards when the car stopped for a roadblock.

The other pair fled on foot. Forty officers hunted them. McFall said he and Leach picked up the three, who had been hitchhiking near Mokelumne Hill, because one resembled a man seen leaving a recent burglary.

The California highway patrol identified the captured man as Louis Cervantes, 21. They said the fugitives were James Woolsey and Ronald Garrett, both about 18 or 19. All are from Sacramento.

McFall and Leach had arrested the three in Calaveras County while investigating a burglary.

NEW STAR IN ICE FOLLIES

Marie Crimmins, petite Irish lass from New York City, achieves stardom in the 20th anniversary edition of Ice Follies of 1956, which is continuing at Hershey Sports Arena through Saturday, December 3.

Miss Crimmins, who joined the show when she was 17 years of age, is featured in an acrobatic bit in the colorful production number, "Honey Heaven," which also stars Inky Dinky, the cute little black bear.

In addition she appears with her husband, Dick Norris, in a spectacular adagio number as part of a sequence entitled, "The Pasha and the Panther."

Before she turned professional with the Shipsteads and Johnson show, Marie won a number of amateur skating titles, including the Eastern States crown in 1946 and the Tri-State Championship the following year. She also won fame as a speed skater and, at one time, was the only female member of the famed New York Speed-Skating club.

Her off ice hobbies include swimming and water skiing, plus caring for her huge black cat, "Mahitabile," who travels with the show as a mascot for the dozen top French poodles which appear in the "Clowntown, U. S. A." number.

The Milwaukee Braves have no contract trouble with Ed Matthews. The slugging third baseman has a two-year contract. It carries through 1956.

KENNEDY BLAMES MINE DEATHS ON TONNAGE HASTE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Secretary of Mines Joseph T. Kennedy said today "too great" an emphasis on anthracite production is resulting in a "needless sacrifice" of lives.

He described as an "unbelievable contrast" 1955 statistics showing 49 men were killed in hard coal pits as of the end of October compared to 39 in the same period in bituminous mines.

The hard coal death figure is 10 above the number who met death in the first 10 months of last year.

Although noting that anthracite mining was more hazardous than digging for soft coal, Kennedy blamed both management and worker for the increased death rate.

Lists Four Reasons

He listed four principal reasons:

1. "Too great" an emphasis on production by both management and workmen.
2. Workmen in too great haste to complete their shift and return to the surface.
3. "Utter disregard" on the part of management, officials and workmen in preventing timber and other

Blames Managers

4. Attitude of management that the miner is in complete charge of the working place and therefore entirely responsible for the elimination of hazards.

Kennedy then laid the "primary responsibility" on the managing heads of coal companies.

"The fact that a superintendent or foreman is engaged does not relieve that manager of his responsibility," Kennedy said. "He must provide the means, the material and the men to make it possible to operate and maintain a safe mine."

Communication

The following communication was received by Burgess William G. Weaver who asked that it be published:

My Dear Mr. Mayor:

Perhaps this letter can will be placed under the category "unusual" to be received in your office. However, we feel deeply grateful to certain ones among your fine citizenry and, therefore, would like to thank them publicly for their kindness.

On Saturday, November 12, our Cub Pack 92 from Coloma, Md., visited Gettysburg and spent a very worthwhile day in your environs. While there our son Garry, who is also a Cub Scout in No. 92, became quite ill and needed immediate medical attention. Not knowing anyone personally in the city posed a problem as to the availability of a physician, I went into the service station opposite the Varsity Diner to make such an inquiry. A policeman was in the station and offered to take me to a doctor. (I should clarify this now and say we were traveling by bus and not by private autos.)

We were unsuccessful in immediately finding a doctor in, so the policeman took us directly to the Warner Hospital. He did not leave until he had helped me to obtain medical attention for the child.

The girl at the Information Desk received us very nicely and called a Doctor Johnson. Dr. Johnson proved to be the essence of the medical profession. He thoroughly examined Garry and instilled a confidence and trust in the child by his kindness. There was also a very capable nurse with Dr. Johnson to whom we also owe a debt of appreciation.

During this period my husband, along with other adult leaders, remained at the diner to assist with the other children. A waitress, whom he had never seen before, offered him her car to drive to the hospital. I don't know her name, but her kindness and trust makes one feel the world has more of the fine people than we ever hear about.

After Garry's release, the information receptionist called a cab. Here too we found a public servant who was a gentleman and a credit to his fellow drivers.

A monetary value cannot be placed on all these fine efforts. Human devotion to duty and loyalty to man cannot be paid for, really. Attention such as this is a priceless possession to anxious parents of an ill child.

It is with this sense of gratitude we hope you will publish our letter

INDIAN PRESS CRITICIZES REDS

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—The Hindustan Standard said today Russia's Communist party chief should have picked another time, place and occasion to announce the explosion of a hydrogen bomb by the Soviet Union.

Nikita S. Khrushchev, now touring India with Premier Nikolai Bulganin, announced the bomb test in a speech Saturday at Bangalore.

The Standard, a leading newspaper in New Delhi and Calcutta, said Khrushchev's use of an Indian platform for the announcement was "ill chosen . . . inappropriate and embarrassing to his Indian hosts."

Second Critical Comment

The Standard's statement was the second time the Russian leaders have drawn critical comment from the Indian press since they arrived more than a week ago. They were criticized also when they attacked the West in a speech before the Indian Parliament.

The Russian visitors stayed overnight at Ootacamund, south India's favorite hill station, after an inspection trip of coffee, tea, coconut and banana plantations. It was announced there that Bulganin and Khrushchev will extend their Indian visit two days—until Dec. 14.

YUGOSLAVIANS LAUNCH BETTER LIVING POLICY

BELGRADE (AP)—Yugoslavia's Communist government is launching a new economic policy designed to boost living standards. President Tito announced his regime would emphasize production of consumer goods and food and de-emphasize heavy industry.

The policy shift was in marked contrast to the situation in the Soviet bloc. There the replacement of Soviet Premier Georgi Malenkov by Nikolai Bulganin last February and the move to the front of Communist party chief Nikita Khrushchev was accompanied by abandonment of Malenkov's policy of more consumer goods.

The rest of the Soviet bloc countries were quick to follow the Kremlin's lead in renewing the predominance of heavy industry, including arms production.

Seek Quick Results

"It is now important," Tito said, "to give priority to those enterprises which will yield the quickest result in improving the living standard and in balancing the Yugoslav (foreign) payments account."

Tito outlined the program in a speech yesterday to the Federal Committee of the Socialist Alliance of the Working People of Yugoslavia, a Communist-led group claiming a membership of more than eight million.

Tito said the development of heavy industry has reached such a level "that we have something upon which we can continue building at a slower pace and more easily."

Let's make Safe Driving Day (THURSDAY-DECEMBER 1) the Goal of Every Driver in the Safe Driver State

The success of S-D Day 1955 can start right here, in this community, because it depends on you. Safe driving starts with the individual—with his personal attitude and his sense of responsibility not only for his own life, but that of others.

Once you begin thinking and acting in terms of safe driving—and every other motorist and pedestrian here joins in—we will have a community where the spirit of courtesy and fair play rides every street and road. Then our community will be matched by neighboring cities and towns until it sweeps across our state, and across the country.

Remember the goal of S-D Day . . . December 1, 1955: not a single traffic accident during the 24-hour period—in daylight or darkness. If we can prove by individual and community cooperation that accidents can be reduced on one day, then we can look forward to a time when every day will be S-D Day, and Pennsylvania will truly be known as "The Safe Driver State."

Damage totaled $550 and one driver was totally injured in an accident two miles north of Hanover at 11 o'clock Saturday morning.

Three-Car Mishap
Police said Ernest Henry Carper, 28, Westminster, a truck driver for Charles B. Weaver, Taneytown, was headed south, driving a truck loaded with cinder blocks. A car converted to a truck operated by J. O. Starnes, 68, York Springs R. 2, drove into the road from a parked position, according to police, and Carper swerved to avoid hitting that vehicle. He missed the Starnes truck but his truck caused $50 damage to a northbound auto driven by George Washington Rinehart, 34, Taneytown R. 1, when it hit the right front fender of the Rinehart vehicle. The truck then continued on into a field, where it turned over, coming to rest on its wheels. The cargo of 600 cinder blocks was scattered for a distance of 75 feet along the road. Carper had a laceration of the forehead but did not seek treatment.

Police are continuing their investigations of all the accidents.

CITY SOLICITOR, 2 JUDGES NAMED FOR COURT SEAT

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Two Common Pleas Court judges and a Philadelphia city solicitor are being given prominent mention in Democratic circles as prospective 1956 nominees for a State Supreme Court vacancy.

Judges Harry M. Montgomery of Allegheny County and Michael J. Eagen of Lackawanna County and Abraham L. Freedman, Philadelphia's city solicitor, are considered the leading candidates for the Democratic nomination.

The vacancy on the high court occurs next year with the expiration of the 21-year-term of Chief Justice Horace Stern. The constitution does not allow a justice to run for a second term. The law further states that when the chief justice retires, he is succeeded by the next member in seniority on the bench. That will be Justice Allen M. Stearns. The successful candidate for the high court will become its junior member.

Made Unsuccessful Bid

Both Montgomery and Eagen have made unsuccessful bids for the high court. Montgomery was a candidate in 1952 but lost to Judge John C. Arnold and Eagen lost the year before to his Republican opponent, Judge T. McKen Chidsey. Chidsey had been state attorney general.

Freedman, a relatively young man for the post, is highly regarded for his legal knowledge by his colleagues. He is one of the authors of the new Philadelphia City Charter and a close friend of retiring Mayor Joseph S. Clark Jr.

Should Clark be a candidate next year for the Senate seat now held by Republican James H. Duff, it is more likely that Montgomery, from the western part of the state, would be the Democratic candidate for the court since both parties usually try for an equal geographical distribution of the statewide ticket.

Some Backing Certain
Also in Montgomery's favor is the certain backing he would get from Pittsburgh Mayor David L. Lawrence.

In the event that Eagen is not chosen for the nomination, Democrats in his home county are reported ready to back State Sen. Hugh J. McMenamin for the Democratic candidate for state auditor general, another post to be filled next year.

McMenamin, who would get the support of such Lackawanna county Democratic leaders as County Commissioner Michael F. Lawler and his brother, Joseph, the State Highways Secretary, led the party ticket in election returns in the

DRY JURIST SAVES DRUNK

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)—Judge Luigi De Pasquale, who never took an alcoholic drink, says a man is a fool if he doesn't keep a little of his pay from his wife for a drink now and then.

The judge's comments were made in district court yesterday when a 49-year-old father of four came before him on a drunk charge for the third time in six months. The three charges were on complaint of his wife.

The man said he works hard, earns between $70 and $90 a week and brings it all home. "This is a mistake," the judge said. "A man who takes all his pay home is a fool. He should save some for himself. Life would be pretty dreary for the average man unless he could have a drink now and then."

He ordered an innocent plea entered for the man and had him escorted home. Judge De Pasquale, who is 60 years old and says he never had a strong drink in his life, is happily married and has three daughters and five grandchildren.

CHURCH OUSTS THREE WOMEN IN RACE ISSUE

ERATH, La. (AP)—The segregation issue flared again today in religious ranks after the excommunication of three Roman Catholics for beating a woman teacher who instructed Negro and white children in the same classroom.

Bishop Jules B. Jeanmard, head of the diocese of Lafayette in southwest Louisiana, said the decree, his first in 38 years as a prelate, was aimed at three women who allegedly attacked the teacher.

Excommunication is the severest of punishments issued by the Catholic Church. Any Catholic under such an order is forbidden to receive the sacraments, including confession, holy communion and final rites.

The teacher, Mrs. Lula B. Orteman, filed assault and battery charges against Mrs. Etta B. Romero and Mrs. Lota B. Menard, whom she identified as two of the assailants. The third woman in the attack was not named.

Taught Catechism

The Rev. Emery Labbe, pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes Church, said his policy was to teach catechism to both white and Negro students in the same classroom. The catechism is a book containing elementary lessons in the foundations of the Catholic religion.

The action was the second taken against Louisiana Catholics who have balked at the church's stand of abolishing segregation. Archbishop Joseph Francis Rummel of New Orleans suspended services at the St. Cecilia mission in Jesuit Bend, La., Oct. 2 after white parishioners refused to allow a Negro priest to say Mass. The services have not been restored.
